Youth justice topic of talk at museum

The Museum at Campbell River, as part of the Ann Elmore Haig-Brown Lecture Series, will present a talk entitled "The Courage of Our Convictions - a Perspective on Youth Justice" on Saturday, September 13, from 1 p.m. - 3 p.m at the Museum. The talk will be given by Tim Agg, the Executive Director of PLEA Community Services Society. PLEA has long-standing expertise in justice, addictions, and other services for youth. The Lecture Series is in honour of Ann Elmore Haig-Brown, an influential and much loved advocate for social justice issues in Campbell River. Admission is free. Call the Museum at 287-3103 for more information.
